

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Knowledge of scarce Books, and elegant Editions. For this Purpose Men of Letters are engaged, who cannot even be supplied with Amanuenses, but at an Expence above that of a common Catalogue.

To shew that this Collection deserves a particular Degree of Regard from the Learned and the Studious, that it excels any Library that was ever yet offered to public Sale, in the Value as well as Number of the Volumes which it contains, and that therefore this Catalogue will not be of less Use to Men of Letters, than those of the Thuanian, Heinsian, or Barberinian Libraries, it may not be improper to exhibit a general Account of the different Classes, as they are naturally divided by the several Sciences.

By this Method we can indeed exhibit only a general Idea, at once magnificent and confused; an Idea of the Writings of many Nations, collected from distant Parts of the World, discovered sometimes by Chance, and sometimes by Curiosity, amidst the Rubbish of forsaken Monasteries, and the Repositories of ancient Families, and brought hither from every Part, as to the universal Repository of Learning.

It will be no unpleasing Effect of this Account, if those, that shall happen to peruse it, should be inclined by it, to reflect on the Character of the late Proprietors, and to pay some Tribute of Veneration to their Ardor for Literature, to that generous and exalted Curiosity which they gratified with incessant Searches and immense Expence, and to which they dedicated that Time and that Superfluity of Fortune, which many others of their Rank employ in the Pursuit of contemptible Amusements, or the Gratification of guilty Passions. And, surely, every Man, who considers Learning as ornamental and advantageous to the Community, must allow them the Honour of public Benefactors, who have introduced amongst us Authors not hitherto well known, and added to the Literary Treasures of their Native Country.

THAT our Catalogue will excite any other Man to emulate the Collectors of this Library, to prefer Books and Manuscripts to Equipage and Luxury, and to forsake Noise and Diversion for the Conversation of the Learned, and the Satisfaction of extensive Knowledge, we are very far from presuming to hope, but shall make no Scruple to assert, that, if any Man should happen to be seized with such laudable Ambition, he may find in this Catalogue Hints and Informations which are not easily to be met with; he will discover, that the boasted Bodleian Library is very far from a perfect Model, and that even the learned Fabricius cannot completely instruct him in the early Editions of the Classic Writers.

BUR

BUT the Collectors of Libraries cannot be numerous, and, therefore, Catalogues could not very properly be recommended to the Public, if they had not a more general and frequent Use, an Use which every Student has experienced, or neglected to his Loss. By the Means of Catalogues only can it be known, what has been written on every Part of Learning, and the Hazard avoided of encountering Difficulties which have already been cleared, discussing Questions which have already been decided, and digging in Mines of Literature which former Ages have exhausted.

How often this has been the Fate of Students, every Man of Letters can declare, and, perhaps, there are very few who have not sometimes valued as new Discoveries, made by themselves, those Observations, which have long since been published, and of which the World therefore will refuse them the Praise; nor can the Refusal be censured as any enormous Violation of Justice; for, why should they not forfeit by their Ignorance, what they might claim by their Sagacity?

To illustrate this Remark, by the Mention of obscure Names, would not much confirm it; and to vilify for this Purpose the Memory of Men truly great, would be to deny them the Reverence which they may justly claim from those whom their Writings have instructed. May the Shade at least of one great English Critic rest without Disturbance, and may no Man presume to insult his Memory, who wants his Learning, his Reason, or his Wit.

FROM the vexatious Disappointment of meeting Reproach, where Praise is expected, every Man will certainly desire to be secured; and therefore that Book will have some Claim to his Regard, from which he may receive Informations of the Labours of his Predecessors, such as a Catalogue of the Harleian Library will copiously afford him.

NOR is the Use of Catalogues of less Importance to those whom Curiosity has engaged in the Study of Literary History, and who think the intellectual Revolutions of the World more worthy of their Attention, than the Ravages of Tyrants, the Desolation of Kingdoms, the Rout of Armies, and the Fall of Empires. Those who are pleased with observing the first Birth of new Opinions, their Struggles against Opposition, their silent Progress under Persecution, their general Reception, and their gradual Decline, or sudden Extinction; those that amuse themselves with remarking the different Periods of human Knowledge; and observe how Darkness and Light succeed each other, by what Accident the most gloomy Nights of Ignorance have given Way to the Dawn of Science, and how Learning has languished and decayed, for Want of Patronage and Regard, or been over-borne by the Prevalence of fashionable Ignorance, or lost amidst the Tumults of Invasion, and the Storms of Violence. All those, who desire any Knowledge of the Literary Transactions of past Ages, may find in Catalogues, like this at least, such an Account as is given by Annalists and Chronologers of Civil History.

How the Knowledge of the Sacred Writings has been diffused, will be observed from the Catalogue of the various Editions of the Bible, from the first Impression by Fust, in 1462, to the present Time, in which will be contained the Polyglot Editions of Spain, France, and England, those of the Original Hebrew, the Greek Septuagint, and the Latin Vulgate, with the Versions which are now used in the remotest Parts of Europe, in the Country of the Grisons, in Lithuania, Bohemia, Finland, and Iceland.

WITH regard to the Attempts of the same Kind made in our own Country, there are few whose Expectations will not be exceeded by the Number of English Bibles, of which not one is forgotten, whether valuable for the Pomp and Beauty of the Impression, or for the Notes with which the Text is accompanied, or for any Controversy or Persecution that it produced, or for the Peculiarity of any single Passage. With the same Care have the various Editions of the Book of Common Prayer been selected, from which all the Alterations which have been made in it may be easily remarked.

AMONGST a great Number of Roman Missals and Breviaries, remarkable for the Beauty of their Cuts and Illuminations, will be found the Mosarabic Missal and Breviary, that raised such Commotions in the Kingdom of Spain.

THE Controversial Treatises written in England, about the Time of the Reformation, have been diligently collected, with a Multitude of remarkable Tracts, single Sermons, and small Treatises, which, however worthy to be preserved, are perhaps to be found in no other Place.

THE Regard which was always paid, by the Collectors of this Library, to that remarkable Period of Time, in which the Art of Printing was invented, determined them to accumulate the ancient Impressions of the Fathers of the Church, to which the later Additions are added, lest Antiquity should have seemed more worthy of Esteem than Accuracy.

HISTORY has been considered with the Regard due to that Study by which the Manners are most easily formed, and from which the most efficacious Instruction is received; nor will the most extensive Curiosity fail of Gratification in this Library, from which no Writers have been excluded that relate either the Religious or Civil Affairs of any Nation.

NOT only those Authors of Ecclesiastical History have been procured, that treat of the State of Religion in general, or delifor Accounts of Sects or Nations, but those likewise who have confined themselves to particular Orders of Men in every Church, who have related the Original, and the Rules of every Society, or recounted the Lives of its Founder and its Members; those who have deduced in every Country the Succession of Bishops, and those who have employed their Abilities in celebrating the Pity of particular Saints, or Martyrs, or Monks, or Nuns.

THE Civil History of all Nations has been amassed together, nor is it easy to determine, which has been thought most worthy of Curiosity.

OF France, not only the general Histories and ancient Chronicles, the Accounts of celebrated Reigns, and Narratives of remarkable Events, but even the Memorials of single Families, the Lives of private Men, the Antiquities of particular Cities, Churches, and Monasteries, the Topography of Provinces, and the Accounts of Laws, Customs, and Prescriptions, are here to be found.

THE several States of Italy have, in this Treasury, their particular Historians, whose Accounts are, perhaps, generally more exact, by being less extensive, and more interesting, by being more particular.

NOW has less Regard been paid to the different Nations of the Germanic Empire, of which, neither the Bohemians, nor Hungarians, nor Austrians, nor Bavarians, have been neglected; nor have their Antiquities, however generally disregarded, been less studiously searched, than their present State.

THE Northern Nations have supplied this Collection, not only with History, but Poetry, with Gothic Antiquities, and Runic Inscriptions; which at least have this Claim to Veneration, above the Remains of the Roman Magnificence, that they are the Works of those Heroes, by whom the Roman Empire was destroyed, and which may plead, at least in this Nation, that they ought not to be neglected by those that owe to the whose Memories they preserve, their Constitution, their perties, and their Liberties.

THE Curiosity of these Collectors extended equally to Parts of the World; nor did they forget to add to the Northern the Southern Writers, or to adorn their Collection with Chronicles of Spain, and the Conquest of Mexico.

EVEN of those Nations with which we have less Intercourse, whose Customs are less accurately known, and whose History is less distinctly recounted, there are in this Library repositied such Accounts, as the Europeans have been hitherto able to obtain; nor are the Mogul, the Tartar, the Turk, and the Saracen, without their Historians.

THAT

THAT Persons so inquisitive, with regard to the Transactions of other Nations, should enquire yet more ardently after the History of their own, may be naturally expected; and, indeed, this Part of the Library is no common Instance of Diligence and Accuracy. Here are to be found, with the ancient Chronicles, and larger Histories of Britain, the Narratives of single Reigns, and the Accounts of remarkable Revolutions, the topographical Histories of Counties, the Pedigrees of Families, the Antiquities of Churches and Cities, the Proceedings of Parliaments, the Records of Monasteries, and the Lives of particular Men, whether eminent in the Church or the State, or remarkable in private Life; whether exemplary for their Virtues, or detestable for their Crimes; whether persecuted for Religion, or executed for Rebellion.

THAT memorable Period of the English History, which begins with the Reign of King Charles the First, and ends with the Restoration, will almost furnish a Library alone, such is the Number of Volumes, Pamphlets, and Papers, which were published by either Party, and such is the Care with which they have been preserved.

NOR is History without the necessary Preparatives and Attendants, Geography and Chronology; of Geography the best Writers and Delineators have been procured, and Pomp and Accuracy have both been regarded. The Student of Chronology may here find likewise those Authors who searched the Records of Time, and fixed the Periods of History.

WITH the Historians and Geographers, may be ranked the Writers of Voyages and Travels, which may be read here in the Latin, English, Dutch, German, French, Italian, and Spanish Languages.

THE Laws of different Countries, as they are in themselves equally worthy of Curiosity with their History, have, in this Collection, been justly regarded; and the Rules, by which the various Communities of the World are governed, may be here examined and compared. Here are the ancient Editions of the Papal Decretals, and the Commentators on the Civil Law, the Edicts of Spain, and the Statutes of Venice.

BUT, with particular Industry, have the various Writers on the Laws of our own Country been collected, from the most ancient to the present Time, from the Bodies of the Statutes to the minutest Treatise; not only the Reports, Precedents, and Readings of our own Courts, but even the Laws of our West-Indian Colonies will be exhibited in our Catalogue.

BUT neither History nor Law have been so far able to engross this Library, as to exclude Physic, Philosophy, or Criticism.

These

These have been thought, with Justice, worthy of a Place, who have examined the different Species of Animals, delineated their Forms, or described their Properties and Instincts, or who have penetrated the Bowels of the Earth, treated on its different Strata, and analysed its Metals; or who have amused themselves with less laborious Speculations, and planted Trees, or cultivated Flowers.

THOSE that have exalted their Thoughts above the minuter Parts of the Creation, who have observed the Motions of the Heavenly Bodies, and attempted Systems of the Universe, have not been denied the Honour which they deserved by so great an Attempt, whatever has been their Success. Nor have those Mathematicians been rejected, who have applied their Science to the common Purposes of Life, or those that have deviated into the kindred Arts, of Tactics, Architecture, and Fortification.

EVEN Arts of far less Importance have found their Authors, nor have these Authors been despised by the boundless Curiosity of the Proprietors of the Harleian Library. The Writers on Horsemanship and Fencing are more numerous, and more bulky, than could be expected, by those who reflect how seldom those excel in either, whom their Education has qualified to compose Books.

THE Admirer of Greek and Roman Literature will meet, in this Collection, with Editions little known to the most inquisitive Critics, and which have escaped the Observation of those whose great Employment has been the Collation of Copies; nor will he find only the most ancient Editions of Faustus, Jenson, Spira, Sweynheim, and Pannartz, but the most accurate likewise and beautiful of Colineus, the Junta, Plantin, Aldus, the Stephens, and Elzevir, with the Commentaries and Observations of the most learned Editors.

NOR are they accompanied only with the Illustrations of those who have confined their Attempts to particular Writers, but of those likewise who have treated on any Part of the Greek or Roman Antiquities, their Laws, their Customs, their Dress, their Buildings, their Wars, their Revenues, or the Rites and Ceremonies of their Worship, and those that have endeavoured to explain any of their Authors from their Statues or their Coins.

NEXT to the Ancients, those Writers deserve to be mentioned, who, at the Restoration of Literature, imitated their Language and their Style with so great Success, or who laboured with so much Industry to make them understood: Such were Philippus and Pelitian, Scaliger and Buchanan, and the Poets of the Age of Leo the Tenth; these are likewise to be found in this Library, together with the Deliciae, or Collections of all Nations.

PAINTING is so nearly allied to Poetry, that it cannot be wondered that those who have so much esteemed the one, have not an equal Regard to the other; and therefore it may be easily imagined, that the Collection of Prints is numerous in an uncommon Degree; but surely the Expectation of every Man will be exceeded, when he is informed that there are more than forty thousand engraven from Raphael, Titian, Guido, the Carraches, and a thousand others, by Nanteuil, Hollar, Callot, Edelinck, and Dorigny, and other Engravers of equal Reputation.

THERE is also a great Collection of original Drawings, of which three seem to deserve a particular Mention; the first exhibits a Representation of the Inside of St. Peter's Church at Rome; the second, of that of St. John Lateran; and the third, of the high Altar of St. Ignatius, all painted with the utmost Accuracy in their proper Colours.

As the Value of this great Collection may be conceived from this Account, however imperfect, as the Variety of Subjects must engage the Curiosity of Men of different Studies, Inclinations, and Employments, it may be thought of very little Use to mention any slighter Advantages, or to dwell on the Decorations and Embellishments which the Generosity of the Proprietors has bestowed upon it; yet, since the Compiler of the Thuanian Catalogue thought not even that Species of Elegance below his Observation, it may not be improper to observe, that the Harleian Library, perhaps, excels all others, not more in the Number and Excellence, than in the Splendor of its Volumes.

WE may now surely be allowed to hope, that our Catalogue will be thought not unworthy of the Public Curiosity; that it will be purchased as a Record of this great Collection, and preserved as one of the Memorials of Learning.

THE Patrons of Literature will forgive the Purchaser of this Library, if he presumes to assert some Claim to their Protection and Encouragement, as he may have been instrumental in continuing to this Nation the Advantage of it. The Sale of Vossius's Collection into a Foreign Country is, to this Day, regretted by Men of Letters; and, if this Effort for the Prevention of another Loss of the same Kind should be disadvantageous to him, no Man will hereafter willingly risque his Fortune in the Cause of Learning.

Biblia Anglicæ.

- 154 THE Bible, with marginal Notes, black Letter, with Cuts 1520
- This is the Bible in which, by an artful Counterfeit, described by Mr. Wanley, St. Paul is called the Knaave, &c. the Rasure of the true Word Servant, and the Insertion of the false Reading, though discoverable by an exact Observer, are so well executed, that the Bible was sold to the Duke of Lauderdale, for seventeen Guineas, by one Thornton, who, indeed first effaced Matthew's Preface, all the Dates, except one, of which he erased XVII, and added a Note that this Bible, which was the Edition of 1537, was printed in 1520, a Date earlier than that of any English Bible. It does not appear that this Reading was ever really printed.
- 155 ————, black Letter, bound in Russia Leather, with a broad Border of Gold 1535
- This is the first English Bible, and was published by Coverdale.
- 156 The New Testament, corrected by William Tyndale, with his Preface, black Letter 1536
- 157 ————, by the same, bound in red Morocco, finely ornamented with Gold 1536
- 158 The Bible, which is all the Holy Scriptures, &c. purely and truly translated into English by Tho. Matthew 1537
- Of this Bible, to the Books of Chronicles, the Translation is Tyndal's, together with that of the whole N. Testament, the rest is reprinted from Coverdale's, except the Prophecy of Jonas, which is Tyndal's. Matthew is imagined imagined a fictitious Name. This Bible was enjoined to be placed in every Parish Church, that the People might read it: It is in the black Letter. For printing this Bible, Grafton, the Printer, was persecuted about five Years afterwards.

- 159 The Bible, &c. translated after the Verity of the Hebrew and Greek Texts, by the diligent Study of many excellent learned Men, expert in the foresaid Tongues, by Grafton and Whitchurch 1539

This Bible has a very remarkable Frontispiece, which is followed by an Exhortation, &c. The Summe of Scriptures, &c. The New Testament has another Frontispiece. At the End is a Table of the Epist. and Gospels read in the Church after Salisbury Use, and another of those, which are read on divers Saintes Dayes. It is in the black Letter, with Cuts.

- 160 The Old Testament, by Taverner, dedicated to the King — 1539

This Edition is called by Bale, Recognitio five potius nova Versio. Taverner gave so much Offence by this Performance, that, after the Death of Lord Cromwel, by whom he was protected, he was imprisoned for it in the Tower, but was afterwards released. It is in the black Letter.

- 161 The Bible, in English, &c. with a Prologue by the Father in God, Thomas Cranmer, Archbishop of Canterbury. This is the Bible appointed to the Use of * Churches. In Russia, gilt, by Edw. Whitchurch 1540

* A Proclamation was this Year published, commanding, that every Parish Church should procure one of these Bibles, of the largest Form, and place it upon a Desk in some convenient Part of the Church for the Use of the People, under a Penalty of forty Shillings a Month, for Neglect, after the Time limited.

- 162 ———, bound in Calves Leather ———

- 163 ———, with Archbishop Cranmer's Preface, black Letter, with Cuts ——— printed by Grafton 1540

These two Bibles are supposed to be of the same Edition, these two Printers being joined in the Patent.

- 164 ———, with Archbishop Cranmer's Preface, black Letter, with Cuts ——— printed by Whitchurch 1541

- 165 ———, in English, of the largest and greatest Volume, authorised by our most redoubted Lord and oversene at the Commandment &c. by the Right Reverend Father in God, Cuthbert, Bishop of Duresme, and Nicolas, Bishop of Rochester, black Letter, with Cuts, bound in Russia Leather, with a broad Border of Gold on the Sides, printed by Grafton, and finished in November 1541

This is known by the Term of the Great Bible.

- 166 ———, bound in the same Manner, printed likewise by Grafton, and finished in December 1549

These of November and December are different Editions.

167 The Bible, &c. dedicated to Edward the Sixth, with many Cuts, black Letter, gilt on the Leagues, printed by John Daye, in Aldersgate, and Will. Serri, in Peter College 1549

168 ———, translated by Tho. Matthew, black Letter, printed by Tho. Reynolds and William Hill 1549

This Edition is reprinted from that of 1537, as appears from the End, in which are these Words: To the Honour and Praise of God was this Bible printed and finished, in the Year of our Lord 1537, and now again imprinted. But it is observed, that some Alterations have been made.

169 ———, printed by Nicholas Hill, for Tho. Petit, in St. Paul's Church-Yard 1551

In the last Page is this: "Here endeth the whole Bible after the Translation of Tho. Matthew, with all his Prologues, that is to say, before the five Books of Moses, the Prophet Jonas, and before every of the four Evangelists, and before every Epistle of the New Testament." These Prologues having given such Offence to the Clergy, that they were omitted in all the authorised Editions, in Henry the Eighth's Reign, the Mention of them had a Tendency to recommend this Edition, in which, however, there is nothing more than in the last of 1549. This Edition, being printed at two Presses, has in different Copies different Subscriptions.

170 ———, in English by John Daye 1551

This is a different Edition from the former, but has likewise the Prologues, without which no Bible would at this Time have been well received; some of the Notes of Matthew's Bible are retained, others are omitted, and many Alterations are made, probably, by Edmond Beck, who wrote the Supputation of Time from Adam to the Year of the Impression.

171 ———, in English, according to the Translation that is appointed to be read in Churches, with Cranmer's Preface, black Letter printed by Richard Harrison 1562

This is a new Edition of the Great Bible.

172 ———, in English, black Letter printed at Rouen, at the Cost of Rith. Carmarden 1562

This is another Edition of the Great Bible.

173 The Holy Bible, published by Archbishop Parker, bound in Russia, gilt 1568

This is generally known by the Name of the Bishops' Bible, being translated for the greatest Part by the Bishops, whose initial Letters are added at the End of their particular Portions. As, at the End of the Pentateuch, W. E. Willielmus Excestrensis; the Translators are recounted by Strype, in his Life of Parker. This Edition is so rare, that neither Dr. Burnet, nor Mr. Strype, appear to have seen it. The Date is not either in the Beginning or End, but is inserted in the Archbishop's Arms, and mentioned

In the Preface. It is adorned with great Numbers of beautiful Cuts, and printed, as it is observed, "in Vit. Park. novis typis Magnitudinis usitate aut paulo grandiori," with Letters somewhat larger than those of the Great Bible. After the Pentateuch is the Picture of the Earl of Leicester, and before the Psalms that of Lord Burleigh, in Favourers of the Work. In this Edition, at the End of the Book of Wisdom, are the Letters W. C. probably for the Bishop of Chichester. In the second Edition, the whole Apocrypha is ascribed to J. N. the Bishop of Norwich, who, perhaps, revised it afterwards.

174 The Holy Bible, second Edition in Folio, bound in Russia Leather, and printed by Jagg 1572

In the first Edition the new Translation of the Psalms was inserted alone, to which in this is added, in opposite Columns, the Translation of the Gr. Bible, in a different Character.

175 ————, with Archbishop Cramer's Preface, black Letter, 1574
176 ————, printed by Walley 1575

177 ————, black Letter, 1575
178 ————, printed by Norton 1575

178 ————, Roman Letters printed at Edinburgh, by Tho. Baffardine 1576

This Edition wants the Title. The Date is found at the Beginning of the New Testament. It is perhaps the first Edition of the Geneva Version, printed in Britain, though some earlier have been sometimes mentioned. This is the first Bible in Roman Letters.

179 The Bible, translated according to the Hebrew and Greek, and conferred with the best Translations in divers Languages, with Annotations upon all the hard Places, and other Things of great Importance, &c. Russia, gilt London, by Barker 1578

This is another Edition of the Translation made by the English Refugees at Geneva, and first printed here, by Rowland Harle, about 1560; it was afterwards revised and a new Impression of it was recommended by Parker, while he was preparing the Bishops Bible. It was very frequently reprinted.

180 ————, dedicated to Queen Elizabeth, black Letter, bound in Russia Leather, with a broad Border of Gold printed by Barker 1583

181 ————, ruled with red Lines, gilt in a very particular Manner on the Leaves, and richly bound in red Velvet, embroidered with Gold and Silver, the Cuts and all the initial Letters to every Chapter in the Book elegantly coloured, and raised with Gold ———— printed by Barker 1583

This is a new Edition of the Geneva Bible very pompous.

182 The Holy Bible, black Letter, bound in Russia Leather, with a broad Border of Gold ———— printed by Barker 1585

This is a new Edition of the Bishops Bible.

- 184 The Holy Bible in Welsh, dedicated to Queen Elizabeth, by G. Morgan, black Letter, bound in Russia Leather, with a broad Border of Gold. 1588
- 184 ———, with Archbishop Cramer's Preface, black Letter, printed by the Deputies of Christopher Barker 1598

This is the Translation now used, which was made at the Command of King James I. The Translators were Fifty-four of the most learned then of that Time, who were divided into five Bodies; of which each was to labour upon a particular Part of the Bible, which was thus divided: The Pentateuch and the Books of Joshua, Judges, Ruth, Samuel, and Kings, to the Deans of Westminster and St. Paul's, Doctors Saravia, Clark, Layfield, Leigh, Mess. Stretford, Suffex, Clare, Bedwell. From the Chronicles to Ecclesiastes, to Dr. Richardson, and Mess. Lively, Chadderton, Dillingham, Harrison, Andrews, Spalding, Binge. All the Prophets and Lamentations, to Drs. Harding, Reynolds, Holland, Kilby, Mess. Hereford, Brett, Fareclowe. All the Epistles, to the Dean of Chester, Drs. Hutchinson, Spencer, Mess. Fenton, Rabbet, Sanderson, Dakins. The Gospels, Acts, and Apocalypse, to the Deans of Christchurch, Winchester, Worcester, Windsor, Drs. Perin, Ravens, Mess. Sangle, Harmer. And the Apocrypha to Drs. Dupont, Brauthwait, Ratcliff, Mess. Ward, Downes, Boyse, Warde. They met at Westminster, Oxford, and Cambridge, as it was convenient for each Body. The Method, in which they proceeded, seems to have been this: Several Translations of each Part were drawn up by the Members of that Body, to which it was allotted, who then in a joint Consultation selected three of the best, or compiled them out of the whole Number. Thus, in three Years, three Translations of the Whole were sent to London, then six Deputies, two from each Place, were appointed, to extract one Translation out of the Three, which was finished and printed 1611. See Selden's Table Talk.

Biblia Anglica.

419 THE Prophete Isaye and Jeremy, translated into English by George Joye, black Letter printed in Strasburg, by B. Becknesh 1531

This is the first, perhaps the only Edition of this Translation. The Translation of Jeremy by the same Writer, bound with it, is of 1533, in the Preface to which are many Satirical Reflections on the Roman Church.

420 The New Testament, black Letter, ruled with red Lines, and all the initial Letters at the Beginning of each Book, representing the Subject, finely coloured, as likewise all the capital Letters to each Chapter and Verse throughout the Book adorned with different Colours, and raised with Gold, neatly bound in red Morocco

In this Book no Date is left, but it appears to be Tyndal's Version, and is probably one of the Editions printed in Holland, before his Revival.

421 —————, black Letter, with Cuts printed at Antwerp by M. Emperour 1534

This is Tyndal's Version.

422 The Pentateuch, newly corrected and amended by W. T. that is, Tyndal 1534

It seems to have been printed by some Foreigner.

423 Storrys & Prophecies out of the Holy Scriptur, gainyschede with faire Ymages, and with devoute Prayeirs approuvied by the Inquisitor of the Chresten Faith, by Maester Nicl Coppen de Montibus, Dean of St. Peter's, and Chancellor of the University of Loven, black Letter 1535

At the End: "This Boke is prentyd in Andwarpe, upon the Lombardes Walle, over agaynst the Golden Hand, by my, Simon Cowke, Anno XXXVI." The Compiler of this Work seems to have been a Foreigner, for in the Account of the Creation, with which he begins, he translates the Text thus: "God spake, It waxe Lighte, and it waxethe Lighte, and God behe'd the Lighte for gode, and separed the Lighte,—and there is waxen out Even and Morning the firste Day. And God spake, It be a Fyzmament betwext the Waters, and it separed the Waters." — At the End of each Section is a Prayer, alluding to the foregoing History. Thus in the Prayer he mentions the Superiority to Beasts in these Words: "You made Man, insounding in him a resonable Sole, invisible, intransitoryus, and unmoftal, with which Sole the Man, his God may love yoe, — You made him above all Creatures so much costley, &c." Each History is illustrated with a Cut.

424 The New Testament, yet once agayne corrected, by W. Tyndal, wheare unto is added an Exhortation of Erasmus, black
Letter, gilt on the Leaves — 1536

425 ———, with Cuts, gilt on the Leaves and bound in blae Turkey, neatly gilt printed at Antwerp by M. Trom 1538

426 ———, black Letter — 1539

427 ———, faithfully translated and lately corrected by Miles Coverdale — 1538

This Testament seems printed abroad, but is very accurate.

In the Title is a Kind of Label, inclosing the Words, "Search the Scriptures." At the End is a Collection of the Epistles from the Old Testament, "after the Use of Sa"lisbury." It has Cuts only in the Apocalypse, which, whatever was the Reason, are very frequent in the Testaments of that Time.

428 ———, by Tyndal — 1544

It seems a foreign Print.

429 ———, according to the Translation of the Great Bible — Lond. in Officina Rich. Grafton 1566

430 ———, set forth by William Tyndal, black Letter, gilt on the Leaves — printed by W. Copland 1549

This Edition has Contents before each Chapter, and Notes after it, from Matthew's Edition.

431 ———, English, translated from the Greek, with the Latin Translation of Erasmus, to which is added a Kalendar — 1550

The English is Tyndal's Version.

432 ———, newly set forth after the best Copy of W.
 Tyndal's Translation, whereunto are added the Notes of Tho. Matthew, black Letter imprinted at London, by John
Daye 1550

433 ———, dedicated to Edward VI. black Letter, gilt
on the Leaves — London, printed by R. Jagg

The Version is Tyndal's. There are Notes at the End of each Chapter, and Cuts in the Revelations.

434 The Bokes of Salomon, namely, Proverbia, Ecclesiastes, Can-tica Canticorum, Sapientia, Ecclesiasticus, black Letter
imprinted at London, by W. Copland 1551

435 The New Testament, ruled with red Lines Geneva, by Conrad Badius 1557

This is Tyndal's Version.

436 ———, with Diversities of Reading, and profitable Annotations, ruled with red Lines London, printed by
T. V. for Chr. Barker 1575

This is the Version of Geneva.

437 ———, with the Notes and Expositions of the darke Places therein, black Letter London, printed by Chr.
Barker 1579

This is the Bishops Translation.

Liber profunde mysticus vel scriptus fuit Revelatione Divina, vel certe Auctorem fecellit Imago. Lege Prologum duntaxat, & admirare.

Auctor (ni fallor) Henricus Suso, de grege Fratrum Domi-nicianorum cujus Foetus prælo datus fuit Venetiis An. 1492, ita perhibentibus P. Labbe & L. E. Dupin. Editio hæc, neutri visa, est Veneta antiquior, licet enim Annus impressionis non designetur, ipsa tamen literarum forma satis ostendit, supe-rioris esse ætatis. Caret numeris in fronte, & liberis directionis & signaturis ad calcem cujusque folii: Signaturæ, quæ occurrunt (ni fallor) manu scriptæ sunt.

This Book may be of some Use to such as charge Phana-ticism upon the Church of Rome. The Author was certainly a good Man; I am not willing to think him a Phantic.

Ad laudem omnipotentis Dei, nec non Virginis Mariæ Matris ejus, omnium Sanctorum Sanctarumque; expletum est Missale mixtum secundum regulam Beati Isidori dictum Mozarabes: Maxima cum diligentia perfectum & emendatum per Reverendum in utroque jure Doctorem Dominum Alfonso Ortiz Canonicum Toletanum. Impressum in regali Civitate Toleti, Jussu Reverendissimi in Christo Patris Domini D. Francisci Ximenii, ejusdem Civitatis Archiepiscopi. Impensis Nobilis Melchioris Gorricum Novariensis, per Magistrum Petrum Tragembach. Alemannum. Anno Salutis nostræ, 1500, Die 29 Mensis Januarii.

Hujus Libri Historiam a Scriptoribus Vitæ Cardinalis Ximenii traditam paucis perstringere non abs re futurum puto. Arij Sententia ab Hispanis, ad exemplum Ricaredi Regis, ejurata, Missale Isidoro Archiepiscopo Sevilla, Concilium quartum Toletanum emendandum credidit, quod ab eo purgatum & ordinatum omnibus Ecclesiis quarum hæcenus quæque Missale sibi proprium habuerat utendum mandavit. Mauris vero per totam Hispaniam grassantibus, Ecclesiis direptis, totoque rerum tum sacrarum tum christum ordine turbato, Missalia Isidori evanuerunt, nusquam servata, præterquam in Urbe Regia Toletæ, qua capta, sex ecclesias Christianis, quibus sui cultus licentiam fecerant, Mauri reliquerunt. Mauros post plura secula e Toletæ ejecit Alphonsus Sextus, cui, ubi rebus Sacris vacabat, pro Isidori Missali, Romanum in Templum jam Christianæ Religionis restituta recipi placuit. Toletani contra obstitere, suum Missale ab antiquis Episcopis concinnatum, Sanctorum exemplis comprobatum, & inter Barbarorum tyrannidem & tumultum per multos annos conservatum fortiter asserere. -Eo tandem devenit controversia ut, pro illius seculi ingenio, lingulari certamine dirimenda videretur, e quo Missalis Toletani propugnator victor discessit. Toletanis vero victoriam a fortuna non a Deo tributam Rex ratus ad ignem certiorum Divini arbitrii Indicem provocandum censuit; Jejunio igitur in Dies aliquot indicto, ignis extruitur, in quem Rege & populo circum genua flectentibus, utrumque Missale palam con-jicitur, Toletano vero Missali, ut aiunt, ignis pepercit, Romanum absumpsit. Toletanis igitur Rex in iis Ecclesiis quas Barbari non invaserunt, Deum Ritu Patrum colere permittit.

Hoc Missale Toletanum, quod paucum extiterat, invenit Ximinius & typis mandatum, in perpetuam veteris Ecclesiae Memoriam, in celeberrimis Bibliothecis reponendam curavit, Sacellumque, in quo pro more veterum quotidie cantaretur, condidit. Missale tamen nostris temporibus adeo rarum est, ut periculum sit, ut Ximenii cura id ab oblivione non satis vindicaverit.

- *3551 ———, XX Georgio Alexandrino Emendatore, Opera & Impendio Joannis de Colonia Agrippinensi atque Vindelini de Speira, Tegn. Mauris. deaurat. ——— Venet. 1472
- Georg. Merula in Epistola ad Jacobum Letrum Pontificem Patruisium docta & ingeniosa, quam utinam exscribendi locus esset, hanc primam Plauti Editionem Herculis laboribus comparat. Certe laudem meretur quod Plauti Textum in Versus distinxerit, cum Terentii non solum Comœdiæ sed & Prologi nulla metrorum habita ratione illa prœstiterunt. Panice non desunt.

Ex adverso Tituli, in Pagina vacua, Notam sequentem scripsit doctissimus Tho. Baker :

This Book, tho' very beautiful, yet has the Marks of great Antiquity. It is printed on thick and lasting Paper, as usual, in old Prints. It is not paged, wants the collational Letters,

Letters, the initial Letters stand at a Distance, and the first Letter in every Book is in Colours, and of an unusual Shape, and those of proper Names not in Capitals. It has no Title-Page, nor Date, and possibly never had any, as in old Editions is not unusual.

This Book was printed by the first Printer in Italy, his Name Nicholas Jenson, a Frenchman, and the first that came from Mentz to Italy, in the Year 1459, as may be seen in Sanfovinus's History of Venice; and, in Mr. Bagford's Opinion, was printed betwixt the Years 1460 and 1470.

Miraris

*Miraris, fuerim cum Scriptor Ionicus, unde est, Quod nunc Romanus perlegor Herodotus.
Mayna quidem merito referenda est gratia Vallæ,
Nile mecum pulchre transulit Historiam.
Res igitur pristinas, memoranda facta virorum,
Qui cupit ex uno discere nostra legat.
Nam, ne defuerint nostra exemplaria Romæ,
Arnoldi artifices consulere manus.
In quibus Andreas Aleriensis Episcopus olim Extremam imposuit, nec sine laude, limam.*

- 4877 Virgil's Æneis, translated into Scottish Verse, by Gawin Douglas, to which is added a large Glossary Edinburgh 1710
- This is a new Edition of the very old Scottish Translation of Gawin Douglas, Bishop of Dunkel, and Uncle to the Earl of Angus, who flourished in the XIVth and XVth Centuries, whose Language, if it be not old English, is extremely near a-kin to it; and accordingly Sir David Lindsay, in his Prologue to the Complaint of Papingo, published at Edinburgh, 1592, calls him the Rose of Inglis [English] Rhetorick. William Lisle, Esq; in his Preface to a Saxon Treatise, De veteri & novo Test. Ed. Lond. 1623. gives the following Testimony of the Excellency of the Bishop's Performance: I lighted on Virgil Scottished by the Reverend Gawin Douglas, &c. the best Translation of that Poet that ever I read: And tho' I found that Dialect more hard than any of the former (as nearer the Saxon, because farther from the Norman) yet, with the Help of the Latin, I made Shift to understand it, and read the Book more than once, from the Beginning to the End; whereby, I must confess, I got more Knowledge of that I sought, than by any of the other.

Utiusque Editionis singulæ paginæ ab eadem dictione incipiunt, in eandem desinunt, ut cuiquam negligentius conferenti eodem partu editæ videantur; nec quidquam Matutianus invenit quo posterior a priori discrepet, nisi in prima pagina & postrema, quas Typographus paululum mutare potuit, ut alterius Editionis fidem faceret. At vero qui animo ad rem attento hos Libros inspexerit facile reperiet, quo a Faulto omnem doli mali suspicionem longe amolire possit. Literæ enim & forma diversa est; Voces quæ per s in hac Editione terminantur in illa desinunt in i; 1. Compendia quoque Syllabarum utrobique non eadem; alia quoque animadvertuntur passim discrepantia.

ANTIQUITAT. FOLIO.

- 5603 Thesaurus Antiquitatum Romanarum a Joan. Geo. Grævio, cum multis Iconibus, 12 Tom. Charta max. Lugd. Bat. 1664
 In hoc Opere clarissimus Auctor, in veteris ævi rebus versatissimus, omnes sui superiorisque seculi Scriptores, qui Antiquitates Romanas pertractarunt, complexus est, & eos qui de eodem argumento scriperunt conjunxit, ut universæ Romanæ Antiquitatis Thesaurum Lectoribus exhibeat. Unicuique tomo tam accuratissimi quam locupletissimi indices subjesti sunt; & inter quamplurimas Icones elegantissimas, venustissimæ Tabulæ ei insertæ, quæ Italianam veterem, veterem, & Latium, universasque Romani Imperii provincias exhibent, tum & Romam veterem ejusque ædificia, per quatuordecim regiones divisa a Pyrrho Ligorio descripta, itemque Cæsarum Imagines, a Julio Cæsare ad Constantinum usque Porphyrogænum nummis expressæ.

Thesaurus Græcarum Antiquitatum a Jac. Gronovio, cum multis Iconibus, 13 Tom. Chart. max. Leyd. Bat. 1697

In hoc Thesauro doctissimus Auctor potiores Græciæ Antiquitates, & præsci ævi reliquias, ut ipse loquitur, instar dissipatorum & passim sparsorum virgultorum, in fascem conneruit, visibilem Græciæ veterrimæ historiam complexus est, & quidquid auri argentique præsci, vel æris, alteriusque ornamenti, ad Antiquitates Græcas pertinens, refert, conspicendorum, in eo reposuit.

5605 L'Antiquité expliquée & représentée en Figures, par Dom. Bernard de Montfaucon, en 15 Vol. (avec le Supplement) grand Papier, première Edition ——— Paris 1719

Bernardus de Montfaucon, Benedictinus Maurianus, quæ melius, in hoc Opere, Antiquitatem Explicatione & Schematibus illustraret, Anno 1698 iter Italicum suscepit, & ex actis tribus in illa peregrinatione annis, doctissimus antiquitatis in patriam reversus est. In ipsis etiam Galliis, simulac inter Exteros, quicquid ad tantum opus ornandum inserviret, certatim contulerunt Viri doctissimi; & ex omni antiquitate, illa tantum seligit atque decerpit, quæ oculis usurpari & imaginibus ex residuæ antiquitatis penu depromptis illustrari poterant. Ad finem Epitomes suæ totius Antiquitatis Gallicæ subjungit Versionem Latinam, cum Tabulis æneis elegantissimis circiter mille & viginti; quas ut ornet locupletetque, non modo in rem suam vertit quicquid a celeberrimis Antiquariis omni tempore erutum & divulgatum est, sed & ipse multa profert de suo, & Amicorum thesauris, aut nunquam ante se publicata, aut saltem nova facie decorata.

Cum, Anno 1680, Innocentio XI. & Congregationi Car- dinalium, exhibita fuisset dissertatio, asseverans ruinam Vaticani tholi esse pertimescendam, negotium datum fuit illustrissimo Dom. Vestiniano, summo ejus fabricæ Mode- ratore, ut quantocyus convocaret peritissimos Urbis Archi- tectos, ad singulas tholi aliasque templi partes diligentissime perlustrandas; quo facto cum falsam illam esse relationem cognovissent, quia longe lateque jam disseminata erat, idem Pontifex D. Vestiniano mandavit, ut nobilissimum Equitem Fontanam, hujus templi Ministrum & Architectum, juberet rationes, quibus ejus securitas & firmissima stabilitas nitan- tur, accurate scripto consignare, in perpetuam rei memo- riam in archivis ejusdem fabricæ asservando. Fontana, in Libro supra recensito, pensum hoc summa cura perfecit; non tantum Vaticanam basilicam graphice descripsit, sed etiam, quantum magnificentia & majestate veterem basili- cam, & celeberrima Asiæ templa, superet, pluribus osten- dit. Opus hoc est splendidissimum, & totum pæne Figurâ accuratissimis & nitidissime ære incisus refertur.

Jo. Georgius Grævius Ceramicum geminum hæcenus ineditum, Samuelis Puffendorffii beneficio sibi concessum, evulgavit; & neminem Meursio, ejus Authore, in evol-vendis omnibus omnium ætatum scriptoribus diligentius elaboravisse, & in observando & conquirendo quicquid ad vete-veterem Græciam illustrandam pertinet, studiosius operam dedisse, palam affirmat.

Utrechti 1684

Grævus etiam hanc Thesæi Vitam, Puffendorffii opera ad eum pertingentem, in lucem protulit; in quo Libro Meursius exposuit Thesæi parentes, patriam, neminis rationem, educationem, &c. ex Græcis scriptoribus eorumque scholiastis, quorum loca quædam depravata passim emendat, & obscura illustrat. In Paralipomenis ab Editore plura loca proferuntur, pagos Atticos quos jam recensuerat enumerantia; & ex Sponii Itinerario Excerpta quædam adjiciuntur, plurimas inscriptiones exhibentia, quæ pagorum Atticorum historiam clariorem reddunt.

Auctor hic fuit Germanus, sed, in Gallorum gratiam, Gallice scripsit. Incipit a Carolo M. ejusque Historiam omniumque successorum, usque ad Annum 1648, concinne & perspicue contexit; & deinde statum Germaniæ publicum sive politicum representat. Ortus sui memor, Romanæ cognominationis honorem Germaniæ tribuit, &, de forma imperii differens, eam esse Monarchicam temperatam aperte statuit. Electionem etiam & coronationem Imperatoris ac Regis Romanorum describit, de tribus Statuum curiis tractat, inseritque Matriculam imperii. Quæ ad singulas Electorum, &c. familias ditionesque pertinent præterea tradit, agitque de Nobilitate & Civitatibus imperii & Hanseaticis, & denique de Republica Helvetiorum.

PRYNNE'S WORKS. Folio.

7994 Prynne's ant Chronological Vindication and Historical Demonstration of our British, Roman, Saxon, Danish, Norman, English Kings supreme Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in, and over all spiritual or religious Affairs, Causes, Persons, as well as temporal, within their Realms of England, Scotland, Ireland, and other Dominions from the original Planting, Embracing of Christian Religion therein, and Reign of Lucius, our first Christian King, till the End of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, 3 Vol. 1666

The Author proposed, in several succeeding Volumes, to have carried on this Work, as the Title specifies, down to the Reign of Queen Elizabeth; but he did not live to complete his Design. The First Volume, tho' not first printed, has a large Frontispiece, in which the Author appears presenting his Book to King Charles II. and the Pope with his Mitre falling, &c. with a great Number of other Figures, which are all explained; and then follows a Dedication to his Majesty, wherein he gratefully takes Notice of his con-ferring on him, without his Solicitation, the Office of Keeper of the Records in the Tower, with an honorary Pension; which, as also his Majesty's Encouragement, and that of some honourable Lords, engaged him in the Hercu-lcan Task of these Sheets. This Volume begins, at the first Planting of Christianity in this Island, and ends with the Reign of Richard I. chiefly consisting of Historical and other Collections, together with some Characters of our Kings, not printed before. The Second Volume, which was first published, is dedicated to the Earl of Clarendon, Lord Chancellor of England, &c. who was a principal En-courager of this valuable Work. In it, he continues the Story and Precedents from Richard I. down to the Death of Henry III. shewing, from many Records, Patents, and Historical Testimonies, that, during this Period, our Kings claimed, and exercised, supreme Jurisdiction in all Ecclesiastical Affairs in England and Ireland. Most of the printed Copies of these two former Volumes were consumed by the Fire of London in 1666, not above 70 of them being rescued from the Flames; which rendered them so exceed-ing scarce, that a complete Set has been sold for thirty Pounds. The Third Volume, dedicated to the Earl of Anglesey, Sir Harbottle Grimstone, Sir Matthew Hale, &c. the worship-ful Readers of Lincoln's-Inn, begins with a long List of the Records of King John and Henry III. which is called an Appendix to the Second Volume; and then follow the like Precedents, in the Reign of the renowned Edward III. from all which Collections, the Author shews, that, tho' the Pope, English Clergy, and Scotch Nobility usurped upon the Rights of these three Kings, they defended them-selves

- selves against such perfidious Inroachments. This Third Volume, Bishop Nicolson affirms, has enough (in all Conscience) to satisfy any reasonable Reader; and supersede his Enquiry into the State of the Case, in either former or following Ages. V. English Hist. Library, in Folio, p. 165.
